

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates. The cable ownership cap is a crucial element of our democratic media, and it should not be weakened.

It's time to stop the takeover of U.S. freedom of information by the giant corporations, becoming monopolies - now becoming more and more sponsored by the Republican administration. The rich do not own the right to tell us what is fair and what's not - put the voice back in the people!
